PART I: GENERAL INFORMATION

• DESCRIPTION OF TOWN

- SHORT HISTORY AND LOCATION

Eger is a charming, well-preserved baroque city situated in the north-east of Hungary, in an area of great natural beauty. It is the educational and administrative centre of the region. Besides its historical heritage and architecture, Eger is best known for its thermal baths, medicinal waters, wines and culinary masterpieces. Its numerous educational institutions offer valuable learning experiences and are designed to meet the demands of both domestic and international students, including an inclusive and supportive atmosphere, beautiful surroundings and a vibrant cultural life. The city is also the centre of a wine growing region, and has gained a real reputation for producing wonderful wines, most notably the 'Bikavér' (Bull's Blood) and 'Egri Csillag' (Star of Eger). Eger is well-known for its multi-faceted history. The city is most famous for the siege of 1552, when only 2,000 men, women and children successfully defended the town from two Ottoman armies. Today, evidence of Eger's eventful past can still be witnessed throughout the town in the form of its baroque architecture and reminders of the Ottoman occupation in the shape of the Minaret and the Turkish baths. Another architectural masterpiece of the city is the main building of the University, the Lyceum. It was built in the 18th century and bears witness to the work of skilled craftsmen and architects from the whole of central Europe. Eger has a lot to offer to culture-loving audiences, too. Although weekdays are quiet and peaceful, culture and entertainment are baked into the fabric of the city. Eger is home to festivals all year round, hosting plenty of joyous events including the annual Baroque Festival, Castle Festival, Harvest Festival and numerous wine festivals, offering rich and diverse cultural experiences for the residents and visitors. Besides the major sights of interest, the historical city centre has many small shops and stores, a grocery market and a shopping mall – all within walking distance. You can reach the more distant parts of the city by bus, as services are efficient, frequent and inexpensive. There are also electric scooters and bikes at your disposal.

- MAIN LOCAL/CULTURAL EVENTS

Some dates for the summer programmes are not yet available, but the planned events for the course period are as follows: Eger Wine Festival (10-12th July 2025), concerts, Agria Summer Theatre Festival and the Frontier Castle Festival. Eger Wine Festival is one of the most joyous summer events of the city, held in the Archbishop's Garden, the green heart of Eger. Visitors gather there to listen to a series of concerts and drink excellent wines in a wonderful environment. Creatively composed, delicious meals are also offered by the best chefs of the region to create a true wine festival atmosphere. Agria Summer Theatre Festival offers numerous open-air theatre performances to present and promote our cultural heritage in and outside Hungary. During the Frontier Castle Festival visitors experience the great moments of the glorious siege of 1552, with authentic weapon demonstrations, historical re-enactment groups, knight trials, horseman show, parades, exhibitions and concerts. The artisans of traditional crafts offer their products, and warriors demonstrate their professional skills. Hungarian film club and folk dance training: EKC staff will organise a film screening and folk dance event for participants to learn more about Hungarian culture.

- HOW TO REACH TOWN (LINKS FROM THE NEAREST AIRPORT, TRAIN OR COACH STATIONS)

• SHORT DESCRIPTION OF THE ORGANISING INSTITUTION

Eszterházy Károly Catholic University (EKCU) is a leading, dynamically developing institution of higher education in Hungary offering marketable courses, unique scholarship opportunities and a family atmosphere to students in five faculties in Eger and Jászberény. EKCU offers courses in Agriculture, Humanities, Teacher Training, Economics and Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Information Technology, Sports Sciences and Arts but we place a strong emphasis on dual training as well. Our University welcomes applicants to a service- and student-centred institution where we provide excellent conditions for learning, housing and leisure activities with equal opportunities and support for disadvantaged students. One of the attractions of EKCU is the diversity of our courses: we offer Higher Education Vocational Trainings, Bachelor's and Master's Degrees, Master's Programmes, Specialised Further Education in 10 fields of study and two Doctoral Schools in Humanities. Our modern and high-quality education, responsive to the ever-changing societal needs, preserves the centuries-old tradition of higher education in the region and builds on its cultural heritage. The history of EKCU dates back to the middle of the 18th century: from 1774, the training began in the imposing building called Lyceum. The institution is committed to its traditions, cherishes its intellectual heritage, but is also dedicated to social trends. EKCU aims to provide quality education and to prepare students dealing with special educational problems of the region. We also attempt to award valuable diplomas with national and international recognition, by raising the quality of educational services, by building a study system that is flexible and offers a wide range of options and by paying attention to the needs of students. Our further goal is to provide a rich, consistently high quality, flexible and interoperable curriculum which will ensure that our graduates have professional competencies in the labour market and also to offer a programme developed in partnership with several higher education institutions abroad. EKCU in numbers: - 6500 students, 100 international students - 400 instructors and researchers - 5 Faculties on 2 Campuses (Eger and Jászberény) - 41 BA / BSC - 14 Ma / MSC courses - 2 Doctoral Schools - 20 Undivided Teacher Training Programmes with 74 combinations of subjects - 12 Degree Programmes in English on 2 Campuses

- ENTERTAINMENT (CINEMA, THEATRE, ETC.; BRIEF INFORMATION ON PLACES AND STUDENT FACILITIES)

- Eger Wine Festival (10-12 July, 2025) is a festival that offers a lot more than just wines, as visitors can indulge in a unique and complex experience with music, arts and gastronomy. Eger Wine Festival has become one of the cornerstones of Eger Summer Events in Archbishop's Garden, Eger's biggest park. - Open-air concerts (in the Lyceum, Eger castle, Archbishop's garden and Dobó square) - Folk music and folk dance programmes: fostering traditions in Eger is very important and one of the most important areas of it is folk music and folk dance, e.g. album Pimasz (Impudent) by the local Kerekes band was one of the top 10 world music albums in 2006. Csík band is one of the most popular folk art formations, the violinist of the band, Attila Szabó is a resident of Eger. The band received the Kossuth-prize, the most prestigious art award in 2013. Flóra Herczeg was discovered in a national talent-scouting contest. She started as a folksong singer but now she sings in musicals and rock operas as well as in her own band. Gajdos band having existed for 25 years promotes beauty and eternal values of Hungarian folk music. Children's dance-houses of Nyírettyűs and Tekergő bands are very popular in the town. Ethnofil band was formed from young people of Eger, taking their audience into the world of Hungarian folk music, world music, ethno funk and jazz. There are several groups working in the area of folkdance: László Lajtha folkdance group, Egres folkdance group, and Szederinda folkdance group. There is an open-air theatre festival during the summer period in Eger with many plays, musicals on show, and also a number of indoor and open-air cinema programmes.

• LANGUAGE COMPONENT

- SHORT DESCRIPTION OF LANGUAGE COMPONENT: OBJECTIVES AND TEACHING METHODS

The course aims at helping learners to achieve an overall Hungarian language competence of level A1, developing “generative language use” to interact in a simple way and ask and answer simple questions. The objective of the 2-week course is to develop participants’ language skills to: 1. Read and understand basic expressions and short, simple texts. 2. Engage in simple oral communications in order to provide and obtain essential information, using appropriate pronunciation. 3. Write basic, simple sentences leading to a paragraph. 4. Demonstrate limited control of essential grammatical structures. Teachers will use the University’s own coursebook to support the learning process as well as visual learning tools, such as pictures, symbols and short videos. As for the teaching methods, our teachers will mainly apply the Communicative Approach combined with the Direct Method. The former focuses on enabling the learners to communicate effectively and appropriately in the various situations they would be likely to find themselves in. In Direct Method the teaching is done entirely in the target language. Learners are not allowed to use their mother tongue and the focus is on developing language skills.

• CULTURAL COMPONENT

- SHORT DESCRIPTION OF THE CULTURAL COMPONENT: OBJECTIVES AND TEACHING METHODS

The objective of the Wine Culture and Wine Gastronomy Summer University is to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of Hungarian wine culture, focusing on the historical and cultural significance of the Eger Wine Region. By combining academic learning with experiential activities, the course aims to educate on Viticulture and Oenology, showcase regional wine diversity and practices and promote cultural immersion. It will also contribute to fostering a global appreciation of Hungarian wine. Eger Wine Region, with its centuries-old traditions, the variety of grapes and wines produced on the unique soil structure, and its presence in Hungarian literature, is one of the most suitable areas for the organisation of a summer university. It has all the facilities, both in terms of professional attractions and human resources, to offer a high quality course. The Institute of Viticulture and Oenology, which is part of EKCÚ, and its university vineyards and winery have the necessary infrastructure and cellar capacity for wine production. Besides that, participants will explore the nearby wineries as well as the Mátra Wine Region. Participants will also be encouraged to take part in the cultural programmes of the Eger Wine Festival, which takes place from 8 to 10 July 2025. Out-of class and extracurricular activities will also be organised, such as a sightseeing tour of the city of Eger, a day trip along with short visits to traditional wine cellars and cave dwellings, a rural farm or winery, and a nearby spa, to allow participants to fully immerse themselves in Hungarian culture. The study of Hungarian wine culture during classes and extracurricular activities will allow participants to gain a complete picture of Hungary and its winemaking traditions.

They are well aware of the fact that learning the culture behind a language is as important as the language itself. The language component of this course offers lectures in English on specialized Oenology Vocabulary, focusing on Hungary's renowned Wine Regions, Wine Gastronomy, and the rich culture and traditions of Hungarian wine production. Conducted by researchers from EKCÚ's Institute of Viticulture and Oenology, this component also covers Wine Tourism and Wine Marketing, equipping participants with industry-specific language and insights to engage professionally and knowledgeably in the global wine sector. The English language teaching materials used in the course offer participants an insight to wine culture and Hungarian culture, too (our customs and habits, wine gastronomy, wine-making traditions, etc).
