

Partner Search Form

Please do not write more than two pages.

Identification of the applicant
Name of the organization	Institute for historical intervention
Registered address (street, city, country)	Zollergasse 17/1/7, 1050-Vienna, Austria
Telephone / Fax	00436503616660
Website of the organization	http://iehi.eu/
Name of the contact person	Philipp Reichel-Neuwirth
Email/Telephone of the contact person	info@philipp-reichel.com
Short presentation of your organization (key activities, experience)	The Institute for Historical Intervention uncovers hidden collective memories by transdisciplinary projects, such as historical research and performance. Members work in the fields of Jewish and Central European history. Projects: Bringing together divided memory.  http://www.antikomplex.cz/de/bringing-together-divided-memory.html
Description of the project
Strand, Measure in the framework of „Europe for Citizens“ Programme	Commemorations of major historical turning points in recent European history
Timetable of the project	August 2018-August 2019
Short description of the project, including its aims	Tourist guides, history teachers and students are invited to Vienna for a three days workshop about “History of Europe”: through lectures, a prototype guided tour, discussions and creative training participants start to develop a guided tour through their home city about “Europeanness” in history, share and exchange ideas about the approach. After the workshop, we keep in touch and give feedback by a video platform to “guide” the whole community virtually through their city. Aim: Apart from national and local narratives participants

Europe
for Citizens

	provide a European Perspective onto their city.
Role of the partner organization in the project	Participation in the workshop and continuous feedback for the other guided tours through a video platform.
Comments from the applicant	I am the first graduate in Historical European Studies in Vienna University, supervised by Wolfgang Schmale, international expert in the field. I also work as a presentation trainer for i.e. University of Vienna