Field(s)	About the project:
	With this project we aim to celebrate and promote our most valuable cultural heritage (sites, customs and other). Every place has some special heritage that is being forgotten or endangered. Thus, with this project, we strive not to let this heritage fade away, but to let it bloom and prove how valuable it is.

Heritage means identity and diversity, but also dialogue and understanding for each other's values.

We are on the search for partners with a specific heritage they are dedicated to conserving and promoting. It can be either tangible or intangible; important is that the partner finds it the most valuable thing to show to the world.

6 meeting focused on heritage are planned, together with supporting activities (web-site, papers, etc.)
